Honoring Native Lands

TRIBAL NATIONS OF WASHINGTON STATE

Shown here are the traditional homelands of Washington Tribal Nations. This map utilizes the correct names for Tribes in their own languages as well as the more commonly known ones. It is a visual reminder of those who have called this land home since time immemorial, created a sense of pride for Native peoples, and a better understanding for the non-Native public. To the Native peoples of Washington this land will always be their ancestral homeland.
